

Berkshire
Buckinghamshire
Oxfordshire

Oxfordshire Nature
Conservation Forum

Oxfordshire's Recording and Conservation Day

Saturday 25th February 2012

9.40 am – 4.15 pm

“Recording for the New Age”

At County Hall, New Road, Oxford

Guest Speakers

- ❖ Mark Avery 'The role of species recording in the protection of wildlife'
- ❖ Curt Lamberth 'Wetland creation - long term self-sustaining habitat creation and the potential for increasing biodiversity.'
- ❖ John Tweddle 'BioBlitz and public participation in recording'
- ❖ Rachel Sanderson 'Commons – hidden and overlooked gems for biodiversity'

Speed Updating

- ❖ Open floor session for updates from individuals/recording groups/organisations on notable sightings, events, courses and new projects

Workshops

- ❖ To be confirmed

Poster displays; networking; lunch and refreshments

COST: £10 for students/volunteer recorders; £15 for professionals

To book your place at the conference, please contact Sally Jeffery, Thames Valley Environmental Records Centre, Signal Court, Old Station Way, Eynsham, Oxon OX28 4TL on 01865 815451 or email: sally.jeffery@oxfordshire.gov.uk